

I am against ANY thing that would weaken the present "do not call list" in any way!! It is invasion of MY privacy, at the expense of my time; without my permission. I do like being nasty. But when someone, uninvited, calls me; I become abusive!! Why would someone purposely subject their valued employee to such danger and hostility?